She was lean, tall, past 40 and evidently unmarried. She didn't altoseying in confidential tones, but she istened intently. Every passenger in those two seats and the half donen behind, says the New York Thome, saw what was going on. It was plain that the eavesdropping was disliked by the rest of the crowd ne thoroughly as the woman disapproved the lovemaking. A big fellow who sat next the old maid tried to interpose his newspaper between her and the unconscious lovers, but she froze him out with one searching gate, full of reproof. Then a round faced German woman, weighing about 200 pounds, at the further end cawded in front of the eavesdropper
